TUESDAY, April 11th 2007 (Yahoo News) -- B2B Credit, Inc. can now offer their customers a national discount program through a partnership formed with Office Depot.

Today B2B Credit, Inc., a financial services firm specializing in working with startup businesses, announced that it has joined forces with Office Depot to create a national buying group. Through this group new and small businesses will be able to obtain deep discounts on the "Top 40" most frequently used office supplies items.

"This national discount program is something that will benefit all of our clients," explained Jonas Brown, President and CEO of B2B Credit, "as it will allow them to obtain much better pricing than what they would qualify for on their own. This is just one of the many programs we have in the works to help our clients save on the things they need most for their businesses."
